

Toolbars allow quick access to the wizards that have been preset for the type of privileges granted to the account. The toolbar will display the access profile you have been assigned.

Example: The CIRC1 toolbar allows access to only the listed wizards. If a user logs in and attempts to use a toolbar with wizards for which they have not been granted access, they will receive an error message stating they are not authorized.